Baby Reynolds, who in the literal meaning of the word, plays a "small" part in "fils Last Dollar," is the only child this writer has seen on the stage that did not cause a sense of uneasless for fear that by some caprice of the infant the scene would be spoiled. The small bit of humanity seems to realize that he is a part of the performance, and that much depends upon his efforts. If he has only a "bit," to use the professional term, he makes the most of it, and he acts all over, from his chubby fists, which he shakes at the suddence, to his dimpled chin, his smilling mouth, and his twinkling eyes. There used to be a herrowed baby that sat in the go-cart with him, but Master Reynolds manifested such a delight in poking at the intruder's eyes, in a very untwinly-like manner, a dummy had to be substituted. Baby Reynolds seems to know just what is expected of him when he is carried on the stage, and he is not yet two years old.

USE OF MAILS IN ORDER TO DEFRAUD

W. S. Buchanan, of Louisa, Held for Federal Grand Jury on This Charge.

DEALT WITH MANY FIRMS

Defendant Claims That He Was Traveling Salesman-High Bail Fixed.

W. S. Buchanan, of Oakland, Louisa county, Va., a white man thirty-seven years old, married and engaged in farm ing in that county, was yesterday held for the grand jury of the United States District Court at the April term, on a warrant charging him with using the United States mails to defraud.

Buchanan is a man of intelligence. He was arrested yesterday at his home by Deputy United States Marshal J. Er right, on a warrant sworn out by United States Postofice Inspector George 10 Smith, and was given a hearing before United States Commissioner, Joseph P. Brady yesterday afternoon, with the re-sult as stated.

The accused was represented at the

The acoused was represented at the hearing by Mr. George A. Hanson, of this city, while United States assistant District Attorney Robert 11. Talley represented the government.

The charge against Buchanan grows out of a complaint to the Postoffice Department by C. A. Smith's Testimony.

Postoffice Inspector Smith was on hand rmed with two formidable packets of etters, which were ominously unfolded inspection of the commission and the attorneys. He was placed o the stand and testified to complaint hav the stand and testified to complaint having been made to the department. He also charged that Buchanan had had dealings with some seventy-odd firms invarious cities, and that his plan was to make agreements with them as a traveling salesman, receive their samples and expense money, and then fall to remit orders or return money or goods.

Buchanan did not take the stand. It was charged that the packets of letters produced and alleged to have been written by him were all in the same strain,

Counsel for Buchanan contended that the government had not shown that Buchanan was not a traveling salesment or a merchant, and that it was incumbent upon the government so to show. Otherwise, he contended, the case was not a design nor artifice to defraud, and therefore not cognizable by statute. The firms with which he had dealt had their remedy in the State courts in action for remedy in the State courts in action to breach of contract.

The commissioner took the view that ase of probable cause had been made by the government, and accordingly cer-tified the case to the grand jury. Bail in the sum of $1,500 was granted, but bond was not given last night.

POLICE COURT SAGE DISCHAGES MANY

Rock Throwers Fined for Chasing Man, and Latter Punished

"Dismissed!" As the voice of the Wise Guy rang Court, there was a general rush for the open, and something of a scramble re open, and something of a scramble resulted. The watchful Robins sacheted to the left and the sad Gibbons moved swiftly to a place of safety.

The occasion of this state of affairs was brought about by the number of persons whose cases were not strong enough to hold them. For instance, when the following persons lined up they were told to depart as quickly as possible so as not to block the alsies, or cause a panic; W. M. Fife, for beating Annie Thomas; Lucian Vaughan, for threatening to kill Mary Vaughan; Annie Jackson, for striking Parthenia Thomas; Wilhe Smith, as a fugitive from Himpton, which place did not want him, glad to get rid of him; C. M. Flanagan, Thomas Crosser and Arthur Matthews, drunks; all were disnosmers.

The other cases were a little different,

Arthur Matthews, drunks; all wore dismissed, and went forth determined to sin no more.

The other cases were a little different, and the first one was Mamie Brown, who had been disorderly on the street at a cost of something over $2.50.

The next one up was William Jordon, who had been detected in the scheme of taking two pants from another party; how was handed 90 days with Mister Smith. Six youngsters got after Spencer Cary, and chased him with a lot of bricks, rocks and other missiles. Cary ran lons chough to get a pisiol somewhere, and then he turned on his pursuers and opened up. That scattered the crowd, but they were all corraited by the police, and an "X." in the goln of the realin, was assessed against said of them, the shootr, for shooting, and the others for throwing rocks at him in his flight. The money was fortheoming, and that much was added to the sinking fund, which made various members of the City Council, who were in court as speciators, feel good.

JUDGES HAVE NO

Circuit Court of Appeals Dissatisfied With Their Cramped Quarters.

ARCHITECT TO TAKE A LOOK

Likely That Interior of Custon House Will be Remodeled. Offices Removed.

The question of providing additional and more desirable quarters for the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in this city has been called to the attention of the supervising architect of the United States Treasury Department, and it is expected that an architect from the Department will soon be sent here to ex-amine the Federal building with a view to determining what changes shall be made therein, so as to meet the wisher of the court. The inadequate accommoda-tions at this time have recently evoked several protests from the bench, notably from Judge Goff.

It is understood that an effort will be made to secure such interior changes in the present building as to adapt it to the the present building as to adapt it to the continued use of the court. The pian generally regarded as most feasible is to remove the offices of Collector of Internal Revenue Asa Rogers, of the Marine Hospital Surgeon, the offices of Collector of Customs Joseph B. Stewart, and his deputies, now on the cast side of the corridor of the second floor, to the annex building, known as the Shafer building, adjoining it. The space thus vicated is to be fitted up as a conference room and private offices for the judges, and the present court room retained. The adjoining rooms to the court room will be used as conference rooms for the attorneys.

Would Meet the Demand.

Would Meet the Demand.

This plan, if determined upon finally, would give the court the privacy- and quiet demanded by the nature of their work. It is possible that the office of the district attorney and his assistant, on the Bank Street front of the building, will be removed across the corridor, and those of the clerk of the Circuit Court of Appeals be removed to the district attorney's present quarters.

These changes will hardly be completed, if determined upon, before the spring term of the court. In that event, it is understood to be the present plan of the judges to hold that term of the court at Asheville, N. C., in May, Sessions of the court may, be held at Baltimore, Asheville, Norfolk and Clarksburg, V.

Asheville, Norfolk and Clarksburg, W. Va.

The act of Congress creating the court, March 3, 180, does not specify where de court is to sit further than providing that a term shall be held annually in Richmond, Va. The time of the sessions is fixed by the court. In this, the fourth, circuit the sessions are usually nold in February, May and November. It is possible that the court may convene here in May and immediately adjourn to Asheville.

Asheville.

If the present building can be so altered in the interior as to make it suitable for the court's occupancy, it is probable that the sessions will be held here thereafter. Richmond is the most central and accessible point in the district, and, with the exception of Baltimore, its largest city.

VOTERS RALLYING TO MR. ELLYSON

Candidacy of Popular State Chairman Meeting With Warm Approval.

Approval.

The favor with which the candidacy of Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson for Licutenant-Governor is meeting at the hands of the voters all over the State is a source of great pride to the popular State chairman himself, as well as to his Triends, Although Mr. Ellyson's announcement has been made less than a week, letters have noured in from all over the State, assuring him of hearty support. A large batch of the most encouraging letters came in yesterday, and the contents of all were glod to assist in any way possible to further the leading of the man who, they say, descrees a well at the hands of his party.

Mr. Ellyson is giving his personal attention to his correspondence, and is answering all his letters and thanking the writers for their kindly interest in his fight. What makes the situation all the more gratifying to Mr. Ellyson is that a vast number of the letters so far received were written spontaneously, and not in answer to solicitations from Mr. Ellyson, He expects later on to visit the various sections of the State and to see as many off the votors in person at circumstances will perial.

Mr. Ellyson is in fine spirits, and is grateful to his friends for the interest they are manifesting in his candidacy.
